Contents

Acknowledgments

Series Editors' Preface

Introduction

1 Learning Technologies in Language Teaching

Preview

What Are Learning Technologies?

What's in a Name?

What Do You Think about Learning Technologies?

How Are Learning Technologies Used in Language Teaching?

What the Snapshots Tell Us

Factors Affecting Technology Use in Language Classrooms

The History of Technology in ELT

The Development of CALL

Corpora and Corpus Linguistics

CD-ROMs

The Advent of Web 2.0

Online Cultural Exchange Projects

WebQuests

Mapping the Terrain

The Digital Divide

Criticisms of the Digital Divide

The Digital Divide in North America

Teachers, Students, and Technology

Digital Natives and Immigrants?

Summary

2 Learning Technologies: Theories and Frameworks

Preview

Twenty-First-Century Skills and Digital Literacies

Digital Literacies Frameworks

Digital Literacies as Dialogic Practice

Digital Literacies as Digital Competence

Four Focus Areas for Digital Literacies

Digital Literacies in Schools

Material chroniony prawem autorskim

Technology and Educational Policy
The Common Core State Standards (CCSS)
Interactive Whiteboards
CCSS and IWBs: The Implications
CALL Research
Theoretical Perspectives in CALL Research
The Unique Features of CALL Research
Research Methods and Learning Technologies
Making Sense of the Research
Summary
3 Learning Technologies Research and Young Learners
Preview
Young Learners and Technology
Screen Time
E-safety
Special Educational Needs and Assistive Technologies
Implementing Technology in Primary Schools
One Laptop per Child
One-to-One Initiatives in North America
Learning Technologies Research with Primary School Learners
Research into Vocabulary Acquisition
Research into Skills Development
Research into Early EFL Reading
Research into Writing
Research into Listening and Speaking
Communicating in Online Social Spaces: Virtual Worlds
Summary
4 Learning Technologies Research and Adolescent Learners
Preview
Teenagers and Technology
Technology at School
Online Identity and Online Behaviors
Language Online
Learning Online
Learning Technologies Research with Secondary School Learners
Research into Vocabulary Acquisition and the Effect of Multimedia
Vocabulary and Cell Phones: SMS
Vocabulary and Cell Phones: Geotagging

Material chroniony prawem autorskim

Research into Reading Comprehension
Research into Writing
Automated Writing Evaluation
Writing on Wikis
Writing on Blogs
Writing on Online Discussion Forums
Writing on Social Networking Sites
Writing to Speaking
Research into Listening and Speaking
Speaking Skills and Voice Software
Communicating in Online Spaces: Game-Based Learning
Summary
5 Learning Languages with Technology: What We Know Now
Preview
Reflecting on Ideas about Learning Technologies: Learning from Research
Conclusion
Suggestions for Further Reading
Glossary
References
Index

Material chroniony prawem autorskim