

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|----|
| Introduction | 5 |
| 1. Zdzisława Załona Education for the future | 7 |
| 2. Joanna Załona Thinking can be taught | 11 |
| 3. Maria Rams Teacher's work with "thinking hats" in form III | 19 |
| 3.1. The use of 6 "thinking hats" in Biology, Natural History and Polish lessons | 20 |
| 3.2. The examples of using a few chosen "thinking hats" | 29 |
| 3.3. The teacher's reflections after the classes | 38 |
| 3.4. Third grade students' opinions on learning using the colourful hats method | 39 |
| 4. Elżbieta Bek Introduction of "hat thinking" at the second grade primary education | 41 |
| 4.1. Excerpts from lesson plans in which "hat thinking" was introduced | 42 |
| 4.2. Conclusions and opinions about the lessons | 47 |
| 4.3. Familiarizing primary teachers at school with de Bono method | 48 |
| 5. Małgorzata Laskowska "Hat thinking" in didactic process in form II | 51 |
| 5.1. A "hats" lesson with Year 1 and Year 3 pupils | 55 |
| 5.2. "Hat thinking" in show classes for parents | 57 |
| 6. Danuta Chochorowska-Sowa, Urszula Ogonowska Making use of "thinking hats" in extra – curricular classes | 61 |
| 6.1. Work roundup after classes | 67 |
| 6.2. Questionnaire results analysis | 67 |
| 7. Teachers' opinions about the conception of thinking development according to de Bono a few years later | 71 |
| Bibliography | 75 |

