

List of Illustrations, Figures and Tables
List of Contributors
Acknowledgements

1. Introduction
Dawn Mannay

I. Wales, Welshness, Language and Identity
Hybrid Identity by KAOS – Song Lyrics

2. Devolved Voices: Welsh Women's Writing Post 1999
Jane Aaron

3. Only Inside the Classroom? Young People's Use of the Welsh Language in the School,
Community and Peer Group
Non Geraint

4. Who Should Do the Dishes Now? Revisiting Gender and Housework in Contemporary Urban South Wales
Dawn Mannay

5. 'Placing Young Men': The Performance of Young Working-class Masculinities in the South
Wales Valleys
Michael R. M. Ward

II. Education, Labour Markets and Gender in Wales
Beautiful by Tasha Harvey – Song Lyrics

6. Re-educating Rhian: Experiences of Working-class Mature Student Mothers
Melanie Morgan

7. Private Lives Use for Public Work: Women Further Education Teachers in Wales
Jane Salisbury

8. From Low-wage Manufacturing Industries to the Low-wage Service Sector: The Changing
Nature of Women's Employment in Wales
Caroline Lloyd

9. Changes and Continuities: Women in Paid Work in Wales 1994-2014
Alison Parken

III. Welsh Public Life, Social Policy, Class and Inequality
Politricks by Jamie Feeney aka Sapien – Song Lyrics

10. Class, Poverty and Politics in Devolved Wales
Dave Adamson

11. Women and Policy-making: Devolution, Civil Society and Political Representation
Paul Chaney

12. The Transformation of the Media in Wales: Technology and Democracy
Hugh Mackay

13. Wind Energy: Revisiting the Debate in Wales

Kevin Parkhill and Richard Cowell

14. Conclusion

Dawn Mannay

Index