

Contents

	Introduction	7
	How can stories help in language learning?	8
	How to use this book	11
	Supporting media and resources	12
CHAPTER 1:	Introduction	15
WARMERS	1.1 Famous people quiz	16
	1.2 Once upon a time	17
	1.3 Five-minute writing storms	19
	1.4 Crazy-start stories	20
	1.5 I've lost my dog!	21
	1.6 Word by word story	22
	1.7 Interrupt the description	23
CHAPTER 2:	Introduction	27
FOCUS ACTIVITIES	Creating people	31
	2.1 Oral creation of a character	32
	2.2 Basic characters	34
	2.3 Three people, three ways of speaking	36
	2.4 Different perceptions in the same place	38
	2.5 Making a person out of magazine pictures	40
	2.6 Dominant and submissive characters	41
	2.7 A photo of someone I know	44
	2.8 Dead man's pocket	46
	2.9 Light and dark forces in two people	47
	2.10 Inner struggle: two voices in one person	49
	Character of a place	51
	2.11 Where you are now	52
	2.12 The scene of the crime	54
	2.13 Different people notice different things	55
	2.14 The key	56
	2.15 Places for emotions	58
	2.16 Details of place and person	60
	2.17 The teacher dictates	61
	2.18 Your special place	62
	Character of an object	63
	2.19 Describe it unseen	64
	2.20 A special object of yours	66
	2.21 An object in a story	68
	2.22 Miming an object	69
	Plot	71
	2.23 Story beginnings	72
	2.24 Six-picture story	73
	2.25 Flowcharts, seismic recordings and timelines	74
	2.26 Strange events	75
	2.27 Two versions of the same story	77

Contents

	Desires and difficulties	78
	2.28 Difficulties in your life	79
	2.29 Your feelings in the last 24 hours	81
	2.30 Story seeds	82
	Style	83
	2.31 Analysing style	84
	2.32 Change the style	85
	2.33 Happy voice / unhappy voice	87
	Language and formal structure	88
	2.34 Sequence it	89
	2.35 Past tense narration	91
	2.36 Linking ideas together	93
	2.37 Introducing figures of speech	95
	2.38 Introducing sound patterns	96
	2.39 Extending lexical range	98
CHAPTER 3:	Introduction	103
LESSON PLANS	3.1 Start with this picture, end with this picture	104
	3.2 Modernise it	106
	3.3 Commedia dell'Arte	108
	3.4 Class oral storymaking	110
	3.5 Pair oral storymaking: two characters	112
	3.6 The opposite of you	113
	3.7 Starting with experiences from your life	114
	3.8 Starting with observation	116
	3.9 Tarot Cards	117
	3.10 Booker's plots	118
	3.11 Mime and write	119
CHAPTER 4:	Introduction	123
RESPONDING TO STORIES	4.1 Peer response: clarity and interest	125
	4.2 Peer response: accuracy	127
	4.3 Teacher assessment of stories	128
APPENDIX	Introduction	131
	Creating people	134
	Creating people: details	135
	Creating people: behaviour	137
	Basic characters	138
	Three people, three ways of speaking	140
	Dominant and submissive characters	141
	Dead man's pocket	143
	Light and dark forces in stories	145
	Creating a place	146
	Brainstorming a place	147
	The key	148

Contents

Photographs of places	149
Creating an object	150
The seven basic plots	151
Story beginnings	152
Bubble flowchart	153
Bubble flowchart, seismic recording, timeline	154
Two versions of the same story	155
Desires and difficulties	156
Brainstorming of desires and difficulties	157
Your feelings in the last 24 hours	158
Story seeds	159
Analysing style	160
Sequence it	161
Introducing figures of speech	162
Introducing sound patterns	163
Enigmatic pictures	164
Modernise it	165
Commedia dell'Arte	166
Flaking paint and flowers	167
Tarot cards	168
Emotion cards	169
Responding to stories	170

FURTHER READING	171
------------------------	------------

TEACHER'S QUICK-REFERENCE GUIDE	173
--	------------