

Contents

Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Illustrations	xi
Introduction	1
1 John Myles (1621–83) and the future of Ilston's past: Welsh Baptists after three and a half centuries	5
2 Christmas Evans (1766–1838) and the birth of Nonconformist Wales	17
3 Owen Thomas (1812–91) and the 'Lampeter Theology': Nonconformity and liberalism in Victorian Wales	31
4 Llewelyn Ioan Evans (1833–92) and the Princeton Theology: a study in nineteenth-century biblical criticism	55
5 Continuity, novelty and evangelicalism in Wales, c.1640–1850	88
6 Conflicting commitments? Baptist identity and Welsh national consciousness, 1649 to the present	106
7 The early reception of Karl Barth's theology in Britain: a supplementary view	121
8 Incarnate glory: the spirituality of D. Gwenallt Jones (1899–1968)	142
9 Celts and Christians in the work of Pennar Davies (1911–96)	167

CONTENTS

10 Twentieth-century historians of Welsh Protestant Nonconformity	183
11 'The essence of Welshness?': some aspects of Christian faith and national identity in Wales c.1900–2005	211
Notes	233
Index	255