

Contents

Preface	xi
1 Introduction	1
The Study of American Politics	1
The Chapters to Come	6
2 Society, Economy and Political Beliefs	8
The Growth of the USA: Immigration and Demographic Change	8
The American Economy in Transition	14
Social Structure	17
Beliefs and Values: Dominant Ideology or Political Culture?	24
Further Reading	33
3 Constitutional Government	34
Origins	35
The American Constitution	38
Ratification	45
The Adaptive Constitution	47
Assessing the Constitution	51
Further Reading	54
4 80,000 Governments: Federalism and Intergovernmental     Relations	55
Federalism in Theory and Practice	56
The Evolution of American Federalism	59
Competitive Interdependence: American Intergovernmental Relations in the 1970s and 1980s	62

The Reagan Administration: Federalism Revived?	74
Is Federalism Dead?	75
Further Reading	77
5 American Political Parties in Transition	78
The Functions of Parties	79
Crisis and Change in the American Party System	84
Party Decline	90
Explaining Party Decline	95
Does the Decline of Party Matter?	98
Further Reading	101
6 Political Participation and Electoral Behaviour	102
Patterns of American Electoral Behaviour	104
Partisanship, Issues, Candidates and Ideology:
Where Do We Go From Here:	117
Non-Electoral Political Participation	126
Further Reading	126
7 US Legislators and their Constituents	127
Representation and Congress	129
Congressional Elections	131
Legislators as Rational Actors	138
The Work of Members of Congress	143
Further Reading	145
8 Congress as Policy Maker	146
The Functions of Congress	147
The Structure of Power in Congress	148
Congress Under Fire	155
Reform and Change in Congress	163
Further Reading	168
9 Presidential Power	169
Formal Sources of Power	170
Informal Powers	173
The Presidency in Crisis	175
Presidential Resources	190
Assessing the Presidency: Presidential Power in the 1980s	198
Further Reading	199

10 The Federal Bureaucracy	201
The Federal Bureaucracy: Organization and Function	202
The Bureaucracy: How Uncontrollable?	210
The Inherent Power of Bureaucracy	210
The Bureaucratic Hydra: A Uniquely American Phenomenon?	212
Reform Attempts	216
Concluding Remarks — and a Word of Caution	220
Further Reading	221
11 Organized Interests: The Real Power?	222
Interests, Groups and Lobbyists	224
Economic Groups	225
Professional Groups	231
Promotional Groups	232
Political Action Committees	234
The Washington Lobby	237
Interest Groups: For and Against	237
Further Reading	241
12 The Supreme Court and Judicial Politics	242
The American Legal System	244
The Supreme Court: Decision Making	248
The Court and Political Power	255
Further Reading	267
13 The Style and Substance of Policy Making	269
Urban Policy and Urban Problems: The Perpetual American Dilemma	270
Managing Economic Change	277
Managing Foreign Affairs	292
Coda: The Future of the American Political Economy	298
Appendix 1: The Constitution of the United States	302
Appendix 2: The States and Regions: Actual and Projected     Population Changes 1960–2000	329
Index	332