

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Preface | xi |
| Part I. Theory | 1 |
| 1. Rhetoric and Popular Culture | 3 |
| The Rhetoric of Everyday Life | 4 |
| The Building Blocks of Culture: Signs | 8 |
| Indexical Meaning | 9 |
| Iconic Meaning | 10 |
| Symbolic Meaning | 11 |
| Complexity of the Three Kinds of Meaning | 13 |
| The Building Blocks of Culture: Artifacts | 14 |
| An Action, Event or Object Perceived as a Unified Whole | 15 |
| Definitions of Culture | 22 |
| Elitist Meanings of Culture | 22 |
| Popular Meanings of Culture | 25 |
| Characteristics of Cultures | 27 |
| Cultures Are Highly Complex and Overlapping | 27 |
| Cultures Entail Consciousness, or Ideologies | 30 |
| Cultures Are Experienced through Texts | 34 |
| Summary and Review | 38 |
| Looking Ahead | 39 |
| 2. Rhetoric and the Rhetorical Tradition | 41 |
| Definitions in General | 42 |
| The Rhetorical Tradition: Ancient Greece | 44 |
| The Rise of the City-States | 45 |
| Rhetoric in Athens | 46 |
| Complaints against the Sophists | 47 |
| Two Legacies from the Greek Rhetorical Tradition | 49 |

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Equation with Traditional Texts | 49 |
| Paradoxical Linkage to Power Management | 52 |
| Definitions of Rhetoric after Plato | 58 |
| Rhetoric in the Eighteenth Century | 61 |
| New Theories (and New Realities) Emerge in the Twentieth Century | 63 |
| Interrelated Twentieth-Century Changes | 65 |
| Population | 66 |
| Technology | 68 |
| Pluralism | 71 |
| Knowledge | 75 |
| Managing Power Today in Traditional Texts: Neo-Aristotelian Criticism | 78 |
| Managing Power Today in Texts of Popular Culture | 82 |
| The Texts of Popular Culture | 84 |
| Summary and Review | 88 |
| Looking Ahead | 89 |
| 3. Rhetorical Methods in Critical Studies | 90 |
| Texts as Sites of Struggle | 91 |
| Texts Influence through Meanings | 92 |
| Texts Are Sites of Struggle over Meaning | 93 |
| Three Characteristics of Critical Studies | 95 |
| The Critical Character | 95 |
| Concern over Power | 101 |
| Critical Interventionism | 101 |
| Finding a Text | 103 |
| The First Continuum: Type of Text | 106 |
| The Second Continuum: Sources of Meaning | 108 |
| Defining a Context | 110 |
| The Third Continuum: Choice of Context | 111 |
| The Fourth Continuum: Text-Context Relationship | 114 |
| "Inside" the Text | 117 |
| The Fifth Continuum: From Surface to Deep Reading | 117 |
| The Text in Context: Metonymy, Power, Judgment | 131 |
| Metonymies | 132 |
| Empowerment/Disempowerment | 133 |
| Judgment | 133 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Summary and Review | 134 |
| Looking Ahead | 136 |
| 4. Varieties of Rhetorical Criticism | 148 |
| An Introduction to Critical Perspectives | 149 |
| Marxist Criticism | 150 |
| Materialism, Bases and Superstructure | 151 |
| Economic Metaphors, Commodities and Signs | 154 |
| Preferred and Oppositional Readings | 156 |
| Subject Positions | 160 |
| Visual Rhetorical Criticism | 161 |
| Images as Focal Points of Meaning Attribution | 161 |
| Images as Focal Points of Collective Memory and Community | 163 |
| Psychoanalytic Criticism | 165 |
| Making Minds and Selves | 166 |
| Desire | 168 |
| Feminist Criticism | 171 |
| Varieties of Feminist Criticism | 171 |
| Standpoint Theory | 173 |
| How Do Patriarchal Language and Images Perpetuate Inequality? | 174 |
| How Do Texts from Women's Perspectives Work Differently to Empower Women through Different and Broader Standpoints, or Worldviews? | 176 |
| Analysis and Examples | 177 |
| Dramatistic/Narrative Criticism | 179 |
| Language as a Ground for Motives | 179 |
| Narrative Genres | 182 |
| Comedy and Tragedy | 183 |
| The Pentad | 186 |
| Analysis and Examples | 187 |
| Media-centered Criticism | 189 |
| What Is a Medium? | 190 |
| Media Logic | 191 |
| Characteristics of Television as a Medium | 192 |
| Analysis and Examples | 196 |
| Characteristics of the Computer and Internet as a Medium | 198 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Analysis and Examples | 200 |
| Culture-centered Criticism | 201 |
| Cultures and Their own Critical Methods | 202 |
| Afrocentricity | 204 |
| Whiteness as a Kind of Culture: | |
| Analysis and Examples | 210 |
| Summary and Review | 211 |
| Looking Ahead | 213 |
| Part II: Application | 215 |
| 5. Paradoxes of Personalization: Race Relations in Milwaukee | 217 |
| The Problem of Personalization | 218 |
| The Scene and Focal Events | 221 |
| Problems in the African American Community | 221 |
| Violence against African Americans | 223 |
| The School System | 224 |
| White Political Attitudes | 224 |
| Tragedy and Metonymy | 225 |
| Metonymizing the Tragedies | 225 |
| Metonymy and Paradox | 226 |
| The Paradox of Identification | 227 |
| Identification and Race | 228 |
| Enabling Identification | 229 |
| Forestalling Identification | 231 |
| The Persistence of Race | 233 |
| The Paradox of Action: The Public and the Personal | 234 |
| Personal Action and Loss of Vision | 235 |
| The Paradox in Milwaukee | 236 |
| African Americans "In Need of Help" | 237 |
| Some Solutions | 238 |
| Reciprocal Personalization | 239 |
| Metonymizing Yourself | 240 |
| Metonymizing Others | 240 |
| Resources for Careful Metonymy | 241 |
| Stepping Back from the Critique | 242 |
| 6. On Hip Hop, Written with the Help of the Reader | 244 |
| Hip-hop Is about African Americans | 247 |
| False Claim #1: African American Culture Is Violent | 250 |
| False Claim #2: African American Culture Is Sexual | 252 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| False Claim #3: African American Culture | |
| Is Crassly Materialistic | 254 |
| Conclusion | 255 |
| 7. Simulational Selves, Simulational Culture in Groundhog Day | 257 |
| Simulation and Groundhog Day | 259 |
| 8. Media and Representation in Rec.Motorcycles | 272 |
| Tokens of Expertise | 275 |
| Tokens of Experience | 280 |
| Conclusion | 288 |
| Works Cited | 291 |
| Suggested Readings | 297 |
| Index | 303 |
| About the Author | 309 |