

Contents

UNIT	TED TALK	GRAMMAR	VOCABULARY
 1 Conservation 9–18	Why I love vultures Munir Virani Page 16 PRESENTATION SKILL: Signposting with questions	Present simple and present continuous Language focus: Describing events in the present	Types of animals
 2 Family connections 19–28	The world's largest family reunion A.J. Jacobs Page 26 PRESENTATION SKILL: Personalizing a presentation	Future plans Language focus: Talking about future plans and arrangements	Extended family
 3 Global stories 29–38	My year reading a book from every country Ann Morgan Page 36 PRESENTATION SKILL: Closing a presentation	Defining relative clauses	Describing stories
PRESENTATION 1 (UNITS 1–3) 39
 4 Music 41–50	Why I take the piano on the road ... and in the air Daria van den Bercken Page 48 PRESENTATION SKILL: Providing background information	Countable and uncountable nouns Language focus: Talking about quantity	Music
 5 Good design 51–60	The worst-designed thing you've never noticed Roman Mars Page 58 PRESENTATION SKILL: Numbering key points	Prepositions and adverbs of place	Design elements
 6 Inspiring people 61–70	How a boy became an artist Jarrett J. Krosoczka Page 68 PRESENTATION SKILL: Using your voice effectively	Reported speech Language focus: Reporting what people say	Sources of inspiration
PRESENTATION 2 (UNITS 4–6) 71

PRONUNCIATION	READING	LISTENING	SPEAKING	WRITING
Types of animals Intonation in questions	How the vulture became the victim	Moving people to action Listening skill: Listening for gist	Talking about endangered animals Protecting species Communication skill: Presenting arguments	An endangered species
Pausing with lists Weak forms (1): be going to	A passion for genealogy	My family history Listening skill: Listening for contractions and possessives	Talking about family My family Communication skill: Checking information	Inviting people to a family reunion
Word stress Sentence stress	Top picks	Interview with an author Listening skill: Taking notes while listening	Talking about books Can you guess? Communication skill: Asking for opinions	Writing a book review
PRONUNCIATION
/rj/ Stress with quantifiers	Music and the brain	A traditional singer Listening skill: Understanding accents	Talking about music Discussing musical preferences Communication skill: Describing music	Describing a favourite song
Sound and spelling Word linking	Chicago's much-loved flag	A designer's advice Listening skill: Listening for changes in topic	Talking about design Describing a coat of arms Communication skill: Talking about meaning	Describing your country's flag
that Giving emphasis	Drawing your own success	My inspiration Listening skill: Listening for expressions of uncertainty	Talking about an inspirational person Getting advice Communication skill: Finding out what someone knows	Describing an inspiring person

UNIT	TED TALK	GRAMMAR	VOCABULARY
 7 Ethical choices 73–82	Leather and meat without killing animals Andras Forgacs Page 80 PRESENTATION SKILL: Creating effective slides	will for predictions Language focus: Discussing the future	Ethical food choices
 8 Better cities 83–92	It's our city. Let's fix it Alessandra Orofino Page 90 PRESENTATION SKILL: Using anecdotes	Phrasal verbs	Features of a city
 9 Giving 93–102	Should you donate differently? Joy Sun Page 100 PRESENTATION SKILL: Using supporting evidence	will for offers and first conditionals Language focus: Making offers and describing possible future events	Fundraising
PRESENTATION 3 (UNITS 7–9) 103
 10 Mind and machine 105–114	A headset that reads your brainwaves Tan Le Page 112 PRESENTATION SKILL: Dealing with the unexpected	Adverbs and adverbial phrases	Brain functions
 11 Nature 115–124	The hidden beauty of pollination Louie Schwartzberg Page 122 PRESENTATION SKILL: Calling others to action	Present perfect Language focus: Talking about past experiences	Nature
 12 Discovery 125–134	How we unearthed the Spinosaurus Nizar Ibrahim Page 132 PRESENTATION SKILL: Using descriptive language	The passive Language focus: Talking about discoveries	Discoveries
PRESENTATION 4 (UNITS 10–12) 135

PRONUNCIATION	READING	LISTENING	SPEAKING	WRITING
Intonation in questions with options will	Leather from a lab	Sustainable chef Listening skill: Identifying main ideas in fast speech	Talking about ethical choices Predicting future habits Communication skill: Acknowledging a point	Predicting the future of food
Showing enthusiasm Stress in phrasal verbs	Having a say about your city	Living abroad Listening skill: Listening for time expressions	Talking about where you live Talking about places to go Communication skill: Giving examples	Describing a change for the better
Linking with /w/ and /j/ Intonation with conditional sentences	Giving on the go	My fundraising adventure Listening skill: Understanding directions	Talking about good causes Planning an event Communication skill: Explaining reasons	Describing a charity
PRONUNCIATION
Word stress with three-syllable words Pausing with adverbs of attitude	The power of the mind	The power of visualization Listening skill: Listening for instructions	Talking about a game A logic puzzle Communication skill: Explaining the uses of something	Writing a proposal
/ɪə/ and /ɪr/ Weak forms (2): have	The miracle of pollen	My experiences in nature Listening skill: Noticing auxiliary verbs	Talking about nature Experiences in nature Communication skill: Asking for more details	Writing a journal entry
Numbers and dates Irregular past participles	The dinosaur hunter	An amazing find Listening skill: Listening for numbers and dates	Talking about a discovery Discovery quiz Communication skill: Explaining possibilities	Reporting the news