List of Videos

Preface

Acknowledgments

Chapter 1. Laying the Groundwork for Visible Learning for Literacy

The Evidence Base

Meta-Analyses

Effect Sizes

Noticing What Works

Learning From What Works, Not Limited to Literacy

Teacher Credibility

Teacher–Student Relationships

Teacher Expectations

General Literacy Learning Practices

1. Challenge

2. Self-Efficacy

3. Learning Intentions With Success Criteria

Conclusion

Chapter 2. Surface Literacy Learning

Why Surface Literacy Learning Is Essential

Acquisition and Consolidation

Acquisition of Literacy Learning Made Visible

Leveraging Prior Knowledge

Phonics Instruction and Direct Instruction in Context

Vocabulary Instruction

Mnemonics

Word Cards

Modeling Word Solving

Word and Concept Sorts

Wide Reading

Reading Comprehension Instruction in Context

Summarizing

Annotating Text

Note-Taking

Consolidation of Literacy Learning Made Visible

Rehearsal and Memorization Through Spaced Practice

Repeated Reading

Receiving Feedback

Collaborative Learning With Peers

Conclusion

Chapter 3. Deep Literacy Learning

Moving From Surface to Deep

Deep Acquisition and Deep Consolidation

Deep Acquisition of Literacy Learning Made Visible

Concept Mapping

Discussion and Questioning

Close Reading

Deep Consolidation of Literacy Learning Made Visible

Metacognitive Strategies

Reciprocal Teaching

Feedback to the Learner

Conclusion

Chapter 4. Teaching Literacy for Transfer

Moving From Deep Learning to Transfer

Types of Transfer: Near and Far

The Paths for Transfer: Low-Road Hugging and High-Road Bridging

Setting the Conditions for Transfer of Learning

Teaching Students to Organize Conceptual Knowledge

Students Identify Analogies

Peer Tutoring

Reading Across Documents

Problem-Solving Teaching

Teaching Students to Transform Conceptual Knowledge

Socratic Seminar

Extended Writing

Time to Investigate and Produce

Conclusion

Chapter 5. Determining Impact, Responding When the Impact Is Insufficient, and Knowing What Does Not Work

Determining Impact

Preassessment

Postassessment

Responding When There Is Insufficient Impact

Response to Intervention

Screening

Quality Core Instruction

Progress Monitoring

Supplemental and Intensive Interventions

Learning From What Doesn’t Work

Grade-Level Retention

Ability Grouping

Matching Learning Styles With Instruction

Test Prep

Homework

Conclusion

Appendix: Effect Sizes

References

Index