

Contents

Illustrations	7
Acknowledgements	11
A cautionary foreword	13
1 A small country: pride, poverty and prejudice	15
2 The Caledonian Antizygy: the divided Scot	20
3 Two nations: Highland and Lowland Scots	33
4 Caledonia, stern and wild: the invention of romance	51
5 The Scot on the make: the pursuit of success	69
6 A nation epidemical: the migrant Scots	92
7 Clans and chiefs: communality among the Scots	109
8 Formerly of better account: Scotland's Golden Agers	130
9 Red Clyde and blue blood: politics and the Scots	152
10 The Lyon Rampant: the constant Nationalist	170
11 A nation theological: from Calvin to the Knoxplex	184
12 The Thistle looks at a drunk man: bards and booze	202
13 The clash of cultures: MacDiarmid and Lauder	220
14 Caledonian salt: the sardonic Scot	244
15 The passionate Scot: the puritan and the phoenix	259
Bibliography	264
Index	267