Contents

| | Preface to the fifth edition | 8 |
|---|---|----|
| | Preface to the sixth edition | 9 |
| | Preface | 10 |
| 1 | Describing the British Constitution | 11 |
| 2 | The Westminster model | 16 |
| 3 | Forces of change | 23 |
| 4 | British government today | 36 |
| 5 | Political leadership – producing a Prime Minister | 45 |
| | The process of selection within the parties – The | |
| | role of the Crown - The causes and effects of the | |
| | two-party system - | |
| | The reasons for changes in voting behaviour - | |
| | The character of | |
| | British political leadership | |
| 6 | Political leadership – the strength of the Prime | |
| | Minister Immonths I denoute quies roll | 62 |
| | Party loyalty, the whips and patronage - Support | |
| | of his colleagues, the Cabinet and the civil | |
| | service - Right to choose the date of general elections | |

7. Publical lenkeships the Residualities.

| 0 | Contents | |
|----|---|-----|
| 7 | Political leadership – the limitations on the Prime | |
| | Minister's power | 75 |
| | Limitations of party loyalty and Cabinet control - | |
| | The party outside Parliament as a constraint - | |
| | Governing through the House of Commons - | |
| | Governing through the civil service - Relations | |
| | with the pressure groups - The mass media | |
| 8 | Political leadership - can the Prime Minister be | |
| | sacked? | 97 |
| | Strength of a Labour leader - Strength of a | |
| | Conservative leader | |
| 9 | The leadership and its relations with the | |
| | electorate; the state and the citizen | 103 |
| | Politicians and the public - Parties and electors - | |
| | Contacts through officials and pressure groups - | |
| | Opinion polls - By-elections - Referenda - | |
| | Personal contacts - The public's reactions to | |
| | politics - Direct action - Why do people obey the | |
| | government? - Personal freedom - The place of | |
| | the courts - Public inquiries and administrative | |
| | tribunals - The ombudsman - Enforcing the law: | |
| | the army and the police | |
| 10 | Governing through Parliament | 142 |
| | The role of Parliament - How the executive | |
| | gained control of Parliament - The legislative | |
| | process - Authorizing public expenditure and | | taxation - Pressing the government from the 249

| | floor of the House - Pressing the government: | |
|----|---|-----|
| | upstairs and informal methods - Standing and select | |
| | committees - Televising the House of Commons - | |
| | The House of Lords - The influence of Parliament | |
| 11 | Governing through the Whitehall departments | 179 |
| | A highly centralized country - The convention of | |
| | ministerial responsibility - The Northcote- | |
| | Trevelyan principles - Departmental | |
| | organization and the Treasury - Criticisms of the | |
| | civil service: its relations with ministers - | |
| | Criticisms of the civil service: its administrative | |
| | methods - The civil service and Parliament - The | |
| | case for political advice | |
| 12 | Government outside Whitehall | 198 |
| | The nationalized industries – Local government: | |
| | its structure and weaknesses - Regionalism and | |
| | devolution - Northern Ireland | |
| 13 | The direction of change: the attitudes of the | |
| | parties | 225 |
| | Away from the Westminster model towards | |
| | what? - The political parties and the community | |
| | - The Labour Party - The Conservative Party - | |
| | The SDP, Liberals and Nationalists - | |
| | Conclusion: no clear direction | |
| | Further reading | 247 |

Index