

Table of contents

Introduction

Part I: Nursing and the Sociology of Health and Health Care

1. What is Sociology?

Sarah Earle and Keith Sharp

2. Why Should Nurses Study Sociology?

Sarah Earle and Barbara Green

3. What is Health?

Sarah Earle

4. Nursing as an Occupation

Elaine Denny

5. Researching Health

Carol Komaromy

Part II: Inequalities and Diversity in Health and Health Care

6. Gender

Gayle Letherby

7. The Family, Health and Caring

Geraldine Brown and Corinne Wilson

8. Age and Ageing

Pat Chambers and Elaine Denny

9. Long Term Illness and Conditions

Elaine Denny

10. Disability

Sue Ledger, Jan Walmsley and Lindy Shufflebotham

11. Social Class and Health

Sarah Earle and Terry O'Donnell

12. Race and Ethnicity

Paula McGee

Part III: Policy Influences on Health and Health Care

13. Policy in Health

Kate Thomson

14. Managing in Health Care

Alistair Hewison

15. Social Care

Catherine Needham

16. Global Health

Sarah Earle