

Introduction 7

I. Labour market and education

Gertruda Uścińska

Financing social insurance in the context of labour market challenges and demographic processes 13

Cecylia Sadowska-Snarska

Work-Life Balance – family in the labour market context 35

Ewa Flaszyńska

Illusory unemployed – health insurance at the labour office 57

Stefan M. Kwiatkowski

Intergenerational transfer of educational capital. Theory and practice of sharing knowledge, skills and social competences 67

II. Decent job

Łukasz Sienkiewicz

Decent job – concept, measurement and practice in market and organizational dimensions 83

Zdzisław Czajka

Determinants of decent work and employees' expectations 98

Anna Jawor-Joniewicz

Towards decent working conditions – an analysis of CSR practices 115

III. Technology vs. labour

Beata Woźniak-Jęchorek

Future of labour – gig economy 133

Łukasz Arendt

Disruptive technologies and the labour market – a retrospective theoretical approach 151

Iwona Kukulak-Dolata

The role of digital technologies in the labour market segmentation process 168

IV. Dependency and long-term care

Gertruda Uścińska

Long term care dependence – the new social risk 187

Elżbieta Bojanowska

Risk of dependency in the population of the elderly accompanied by a need for long-term care 205

V. Foreign experiences

Zbigniew Klimiuk

In the search for a more fair socio-economic system. The German economy in the post-war period (1950–1970) – theoretical and model dilemmas and economic policy 223