

- CHAPTER 1. Investigating Our Own Literacy: What Makes a Good Teacher of Reading?
- CHAPTER 2. Creating a Literacy-Rich Classroom Environment
- CHAPTER 3. Developing Foundations for Fluent Readers: Phonological/Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, and Fluency
- CHAPTER 4. Cultivating Children’s Curiosity for Words: Teaching Vocabulary
- CHAPTER 5. Preparing Strategic Readers: Teaching Reading through Cognitive Strategy Instruction
- CHAPTER 6. Helping Children to Construct Meaning: “Good-Reader” Comprehension Strategies
- CHAPTER 7. Teaching Expository Text across the Curriculum
- CHAPTER 8. Appreciating Children’s Literature: Teaching the Language of Narrative Text
- CHAPTER 9. Supporting Children’s Voices: Response to Literature through Writing
- CHAPTER 10. Creating a Culturally Responsive Classroom Community
- CHAPTER 11. Assessing Children’s Reading Development: Part 1. Motivation, Phonological/Phonemic Awareness, Word Identification, and Fluency
- CHAPTER 12. Assessing Children’s Reading Development: Part 2. Vocabulary, Comprehension, and Reader Response
- CHAPTER 13. Viewing Ourselves as Professional Teachers of Reading
- APPENDIX A. The Most Common Phonetic Elements and the Most Common Onsets and Rimes
- APPENDIX B. Second-Grade Sample Reading Performance Assessment

References

Index