

Contents

1.	The Role of Reading Specialists in Schools, Classrooms, and Communities	1
	Where We Have Been	2
	Where We Are: The 21st Century	8
	Where We Are Going: A Crystal Ball?	11
	Summary	13
2.	An Overview of the Instructional Role	16
	What Reading Specialists Need to Know about Working in an Instructional Role	17
	Approaches to Collaboration	25
	Helping Students Succeed in the Classroom While Developing Needed Skills and Strategies	29
	Pullout or In-Class Instruction: Is That the Question?	35
	Ideas to Foster Effective Collaboration in Instructional Roles	40
	Summary	42
3.	The Instructional Role: Initiating, Implementing, and Evaluating	44
	Starting a New Program	44
	The Culture of the School and Classrooms	46
	Working at Various Levels	50
	Getting Feedback (Evaluating the Program)	57
	Summary	59

4.	Leadership of the Reading Specialist: What Does It Mean?	64
	What Is Leadership? 65
	Characteristics and Qualifications of Leaders 66
	Working with Groups 72
	The Reading Specialist as Leader 75
	Serving as a Resource to Teachers 77
	A Resource for Allied Professionals 80
	A Resource for Administrators 81
	Summary 81
5.	Professional Development	87
	Revitalizing the Wasteland 88
	What Is Professional Development? 89
	Improving Professional Development 91
	LEADERS: A Professional Development Initiative 94
	Pennsylvania High School Coaching Initiative 97
	Guidelines for Developing, Leading, Implementing, and Evaluating an Effective Professional Development Program 98
	Summary 105
6.	Coaching: Improving Classroom and School Literacy Instruction	108
	Why Coaching? 109
	What Is Coaching? 110
	An Interactive Framework of Instructional Coaching 111
	Activities of Coaching 121
	Summary 122
7.	What Coaches Do to Improve Instruction: Working with Individual Teachers	124
	The Reading Specialist as Coach: Getting Started 124
	Demonstrating or Modeling 127
	Coplanning 128
	Observations 129
	Giving Feedback 143
	The Reality of the School 146
	Summary 148
8.	Developing a School Reading Program	154
	Problems of Effecting Large-Scale Change 155
	What Should We Do? 158
	Curriculum Development 159
	Selection of Materials 167

Technology in the Reading Program	170
Knowledge and Understanding of State and Federal Requirements	171
Impact of Federal or State Initiatives on the Role of Reading Specialists	172
Summary	176
9. Assessment of Classroom and School Reading Programs	178
What and Why?	179
Principles of Assessment	183
Issues in Assessment	190
Summary	193
10. School, Community, and Family Partnerships	195
Involvement with External Agencies	196
Working with Families	205
Practical Ideas for Increasing Parent Involvement in the Schools	207
Summary	211
11. Writing Proposals	214
General Guidelines for Proposal Writing	214
Elements of a Proposal	217
Sources for Funding	221
Rejection	221
Summary	222
12. The Reading Specialist as Lifelong Learner: Meeting Challenges and Changes	227
Professional Development for Reading Specialists	228
Local, State, and Federal Guidelines	230
Lifelong Learning: A Necessity for Reading Specialists	230
Becoming a Reading Specialist	234
Summary	235
APPENDIX A. Sample Observation Form	237
APPENDIX B. Observation Protocol for Content Area Instruction	238
APPENDIX C. Preparation for Job Interviews	240
APPENDIX D. Ideas for Course or Workshop Instructors	242
References	251
Index	265